“Timeless,” one of three new murals by Jennifer Clark, a graphic designer in Great Barrington, Mass., offers armchair travelers an alternative to vacationing in France this summer. The mural was made from a photograph taken in Toulouse by Dianne Bos, a Canadian photographer; the series also includes “Eiffel Tower” and “Along Paris Streets,” based on images by other photographers.

Made by Brewster Home Fashions, a wallcovering company, all three murals are printed on vinyl-coated prepasted paper and measure 90 by 108 inches. Available online only, from Target, for about $200; information: (800) 591-3869 or target.com.
